

Shannetta Griffin, P.E. is the Deputy Aviation Market leader for CDM- an environmental , consulting, operations and construction firm. Griffin has been involved in the transportation arena primarily in the area of aviation for more than 24 years. Her consultant work has allowed her to work with many major airports and departments of transportations across the county.

Griffin graduated from the University of Toledo. She was the first African American female to graduate in the college of Civil Engineering , and was honored as the Outstanding Alumni for the Civil Engineering college in 2004.

Griffin has served in leadership positions for several civic, engineering and transportation organizations and is currently an International Director for WTS.